Election/restriction

1. Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:
 - I. Claims 1-9, drawn to voltage-controlled oscillator circuitry with a variable capacitor circuitry and controller for controlling voltage level difference by offset voltage, classified in class 331, subclass 177V, 177R, 36C and 34.
 - II. Claims 10-45, drawn to radio frequency transmitter with controlled oscillator and signal generator circuit, classified in class 455, subclass 91,73,196.1 and 318.

2. The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

Inventions in group I and II are related as process and apparatus for its practice.

The inventions are distinct if it can be shown that either: (1) the process as claimed can be practiced by another materially different apparatus or by hand, or (2) the apparatus as claimed can be used to practice another and materially different process. (MPEP § 806.05(e)). In this case these inventions are distinct for the reason given above and have required a separate status in the art because the recognized divergent subject matter, restrict for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

These inventions are distinct for reason given above and the search requires for a group [I] is not required for group [2] restrict for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

Inventions in group I and II are unrelated. Inventions are unrelated if it can be shown that they are not disclosed as capable of use together and they have different modes of operation, different functions, or different effects (MPEP § 806.04, MPEP § 808.01). In the instant case the different inventions are unrelated for the reason given above, have required a separate status in the art because the recognized divergent subject matter, restrict for examination purposes as indicated is proper. These inventions are unrelated for reason given above and the search requires for a group [1] is not required for group [2] restrict for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

Art Unit: 2684
